

ANTICIPATORY SET

---

PLANNING SHEET

In order to write a successful anticipatory set, consider asking yourself the following questions:

How can I involve as many students as possible, piquing their interests for the subject matter to come?

How should I inform my students of the lesson's context and objectives, in kid-friendly language?

What do the students need to know before they can delve into the lesson plan itself and direct instruction?

