

Who is the artist we learned about today?

Where was this artist born, and when?

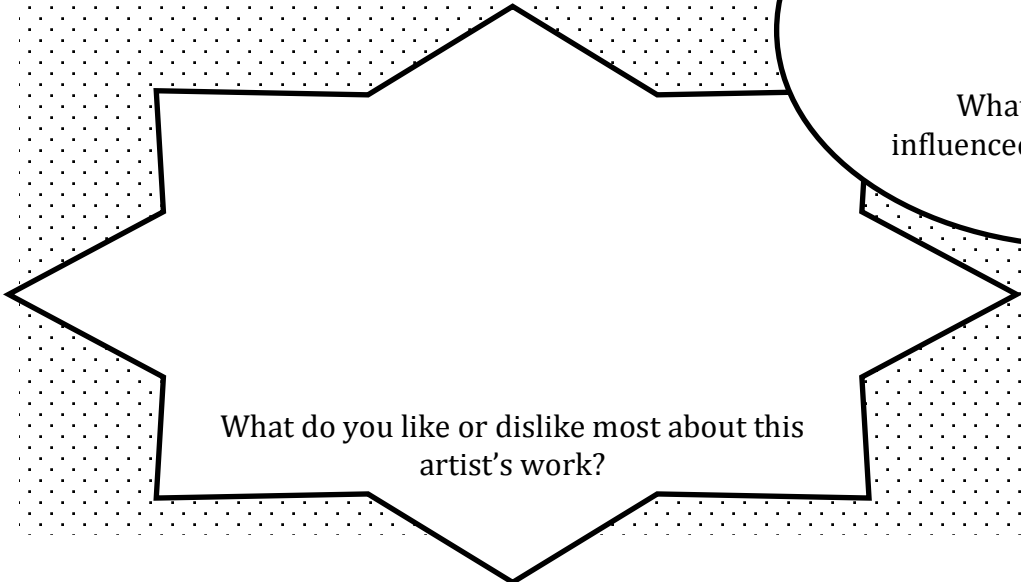

What kind of materials does the artist use?

What does this artist call his most famous form of art? (and what was the first one made of?)

What cultures have influenced this artist's work?

What do you like or dislike most about this artist's work?